Our guest speaker last month, Theresa ROBICHAUX, gave us some very good information about the Clerk of Court's office and how it sustains itself on the fees collected for services. Services provided for passports, property sales, mortgage certificates, marriage licenses, birth certificates, as well as information on jury duty, filing fees, elections, and so much more. She has created a new Archive Department to keep all records in Terrebonne Parish. All records are open to the public for viewing. You must go through a security check before viewing any records and cell phones, hand held scanners are not allowed. They will make copies for you, if needed, for a fee. You can subscribe for online eSearch service where they offer low one-day rates. Visit their website at www.terrebonneclerk.org. If you click on the History button you can view a slideshow of the history of the courthouse. Office hours are 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.
